A RAILROAD ON PAPER.

(Virginia Enterprise, 2d.)

Most of the "railroads" of the country are first built upon paper by individuals who have more imagination than cash, and after all the facts and figures are made, the man with means, if they can find no fault with the figures, invest their money, get it back every two years and are called shrewd and far-sighted business men. The Eureka and Palisade Railroad was built first in the Sentinel office, and to day we propose to build another road on paper, which we expect to see materialized on land within the next two years. The freights paid on goods which are shipped south from Wadsworth amount daily to $2,000—some say much more. There is no travel and no return freight, save now and then a load of ore and occasionally a small shipment of bullion. A road running from Wadsworth or from the Mound House for one hundred and fifty miles would command the trade of Aurora, Bodie, Mariette, Belleville, Downieville, Alida Valley, Benton, Lewis District, Independence, Cerro Gordo, and half a dozen other districts south and east of Belleville. For the first hundred miles the grading would not cost to exceed $1,000 per mile for a narrow-gauge road. Steel rails of forty-five pounds per yard could be laid down in Reno or Wadsworth for $6,400 per mile; six locomotives would cost $54,000, and the cars as much more. The ties would cost $600 per mile, and culverts, bridges and depots would probably cost $1,000 per mile. The telegraph might cost, say, $1,000 per mile more. Now, to recapitulate, we will have for rails, $6,400 per mile, ties $600, grading $1,000, rolling stock $1,000, depots, culverts and bridges $1,000, and the telegraph $1,000, or a total of $11,000 per mile. This is a fair estimate, and for 100 miles the total cost would be $1,100,000. The fifty additional miles would cost something more for grading, but not more than $4,000 per mile more, which would leave the road for 150 miles completed and amply stocked for $1,850,000. The interest on this sum, at fifteen per cent, per annum—ten per cent, interest and five per cent, for working expenses and repairs—would be $227,500. By charging one third the freights now charged from Wadsworth, the returns without any increase in business would from freights alone amount to $244,333. But it is plain enough that the outgoing freights would be doubled. The passenger fare would be something enormous. The freights and fares now being paid at Carson and at points on the Southern Pacific would all come to this road. Half a dozen districts, the ores of which are low grade and are not being worked at present, would spring into life. There would be constant back freights in the shape of bullion, salt and soda, so that at lower rates than were ever known on any road in Nevada the receipts would return all the money that the road would cost within two years. It would pass through a comparatively virgin country, and country as rich in mines as ever was seen on earth. After the 150 miles were completed, if the owners pleased to continue it 80 miles further they would connect with the Southern Pacific, and thus place Los Angeles, with her cheap fruits and grain, within twenty-four hours' transportation of Virginia. The narrow road would be just as good for all purposes as the Central Pacific or the Virginia and Truckee road. It would grow more and more valuable with the years, and never could have any opposition. Its building would give a good many men employment; its working would always furnish employment for as many more; it would open old and new districts which would give hundreds and thousands of men work; it would add to the State's taxable property materially, and would pay tremondously. The above is a preliminary survey, but it is correct.

Dr. Stewart (Republican) of the third Minnesota district, has decided to run for Congress in opposition to Mr. W. D. Washburn, the regular nominee of his party. There is an opportunity for effective work on the other side.

POLITICAL NOTES.

General Banks does not like to be interviewed on politics.

Colored men in Charleston are organizing Hampton campaign clubs.

The Burlington Hawkeye says that "greenbackism" is "nothing but brevet Communism."

Montgomery Blair has announced himself a candidate for Congress in the Sixth District of Maryland.

It is reported that Congressman Schlesinger, of Texas, believed war with Mexico is very probable.

After all it appears to be the intention of the Republicans of Charles-ton, S. C., to nominate a straight-out ticket.

Judge Longworth and Benjamin Butterworth are spoken of as possible Republican candidates in Milton Saylor's district, Ohio.

Orlando M. Barnes, the Democrat candidate for Governor of Michigan, is a native of Ira, Cayuga county, N. Y.

"Colonel" Johnston has withdrawn from the Congressional contest in the Charlotte (N. C.) district, and the Observer thinks that "Colonel" Steele will be the Democratic nominee.

DEMOCRATIC DOCTRINE FOR 1880.—The Resumption Act ought to be unconditionally repealed. The old silver dollar, the unit of value of nearly all our history, should be placed on equal terms with gold as to free and unlimited coinage. The National Banking system—it is this that pleads to be let alone—is to be wiped out, and the sole right of Government to issue paper money is to be established by law. The greenbacks are to be received for customs, that the Government that issues money may itself honor it. These are unsettled questions, and till they are settled the currency conflict is not ended.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

At Osburn & Shoemaker's you can buy Florida Water for 25c and 50c; Cashmere Boquet Soap for 25c, other toilet soaps in proportion; Sanders' Face Powder, 37½c, other toilet powders in proportion; also just received from the East a large and splendid assortment of Fancy Hair Oils, Colognes, Extracts, etc., which we offer at prices lower than ever offered in Reno. ## THE DAILY JOURNAL

Is the best daily paper published on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, east of Sacramento, and having a general circulation throughout the State. It is especially valuable as an advertising medium.

THE DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL
Has a combined circulation larger than that of any other journal of Nevada, excepting those of the Comstock.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

A tornado has visited Illinois, doing much damage.

Captain Webb is trying to swim 36 hours in the river Thames, without resting.

Disraeli and Salisbury are to be honored in London to-day by a big reception.

The British Columbia Parliament has passed a resolution condemning Chinese labor.

Twenty-four cases of yellow fever and seven deaths reported in New Orleans within the past 24 hours.

Cardinal Franchi will be buried on Monday. In the meantime all business has been suspended at the Vatican.

Ben Butler and Kearney have had a private interview of half an hour's length. Butler denies that he sent for Kearney.

Gen. Fremont banqueted by the Associate Pioneers of California, in New York, Thursday. They had a big time. Fremont leaves immediately for his post as Governor of Arizona.

It has long been a subject of uncertainty and conjecture where the Indians obtained their ammunition during their hostilities with the whites. A letter received by Secretary Schurz from the United States Commissioner at Salt Lake City, dated July 16, sheds some light on the subject. The Commissioner says that the Mormon co-operative stores throughout Utah and portions of Idaho supply hostile Indians directly or indirectly with all kinds of ammunition, and that these stores, under the management of the Mormon priesthood, are located along the Indian border, and in all the towns and hamlets in the Territory of Utah and also in Idaho.

A CONNECTICUT INVENTOR has devised a safety lamp for railroad cars. A kerosene lamp is placed outside the car at one end, throwing its light by a reflector into a tube a foot and a half in diameter, which runs alongside of the ventilating deck. At intervals the tube is "tapped" for light, a system of reflectors distributing the light through the interior of the car. An attachment is provided which extinguishes the light the instant the lamp is off its balance, so that in the event of an accident no fear of fire need be apprehended. The tube conducts the light so admirably that fine print can be read at a distance of forty feet from the lamp.

NEW HAMPSHIRE is hard on tramps. A bill has just passed her House of Representatives which provides for the punishment, by imprisonment, from fifteen months up to five years, the former penalty being provided for any person who is "proved to be a tramp." Very likely some honest, worthy, industrious persons traveling for employment will be arrested and unjustly punished if this act becomes a law, and goes into effect. We have some sympathy for "tramps"—especially those who are honest and unfortunate—hence we think this sort of legislation is unnecessarily severe.

A LETTER from Constantinople says the plague decimated the population of the city forty years ago, and how to avoid a similar pestilence is the question weighing on the minds of all foreign residents just now. The deaths among the refugees, most of whom are compelled to sleep in the muddy streets, average two hundred a day.

DIRECTOR of the Mint Linderman has decided in consequence of yellow fever at New Orleans and the death of the melter and refiner to intermit for ninety days active preparations for coinage at the mint.

THE Democrats of South Carolina yesterday renominated Governor Hampton and the entire list of State officers for re-election.

During the continuance of hot weather, it is you who retain good health, sustain from eating much fresh meat. Fruits are more healthy, always wholesome, and do not heat up the system. Physicians all testify that persons who partake plentifully of ripe fruit—it must be fresh—during midsummer, are invariably healthy.

Death reaps a greater harvest during a heated term like the present, than at any other period of the year. This is probably due to the fact that the human system becomes enervated by the sweltering heat, the nerves relax, the stomach is feverish, the blood is vitiated, and disease creeps in upon the strongest constitutions. Attention to diet will ward off many attacks peculiar to this season, and be the means of perpetuating health, and, consequently, saving life. Too much animal, especially greasy food, should be avoided at all seasons, but particularly so in mid-Summer.

To eat wisely we must adapt our food to the season, and to the temperament of the human system. The object of eating in the Winter is partially to give warmth to the body, hence we eat meat and farinaceous food, which produces heat, strength, and also imparts robust health. Carbon generated from this kind of food warms us. Then, in Summer we should consume chiefly food which is cooling, yet nutritious. Carbonaceous material we do not need. Ripe fruit and fresh vegetables, when taken in limited quantities, are healthy, cooling and abundantly nutritious. Let us remember these hygienic facts.

NYE FOR CONNOR.

The Eureka Sentinel says that the Nye, Republican County, Central Committee has appointed a Connor delegation to the State Convention. If Connor carries Eureka, Lincoln, Ormsby, Douglas and Esmeralda, he is liable to be the nominee for Governor.

DEAL FOR CONGRESS.

W. E. F. Deal, of Virginia, will, it is said, be the Democratic nominee for Congress. Mr. Deal is certainly the strongest man the Democrats could place in the field. There is but one fault with Deal—he ought to be a Republican.

FOR KINKEAD.

We understand that the Republican County Central Committee of Humboldt will appoint the delegates to the State Convention. They will be solid for John H. Kinkead for Governor.

TO APPOINT.

Nye county has appointed delegates to the Republican State Convention. Humboldt, Lincoln and White Pine, so we are told, will do the same.

The Order of the Garter, to which Queen Victoria has raised Disraeli, is the highest and most select Order in Europe. It comprises the King of Italy, the Emperor of Germany, the King of Portugal, the King of Denmark, the King of the Belgians, the Emperor of Austria, the Czar of Russia, the Emperor of Brazil, the Shah of Persia, the King of the Hellenes, half a dozen German Princes, fifteen British Dukes, and a dozen Earls or Marquises. The Order was instituted by Edward III. five hundred years ago, and is the most ancient and honorable in the British empire.

The Duke of Montpensier was opposed to the embalming of his daughter, the late Queen of Spain, and she was not embalmed. The King of Spain himself closed his wife's eyes, and then took her wedding-ring, and for a time would see none but an old servant.

It is reported that $80,000 worth of machinery had to be destroyed on the City of Tokio, in order to repair the remainder and enable the vessel to reach port on her recent trip. The company has, therefore, struck a general average on the cargo.

BODIE is now a flourishing town of 2,000 inhabitants, and all the present indications augur well for its future growth and permanent prosperity. The mines are yielding far beyond expectation. The ores, gold, are of high grade and easily reduced; and four mills, with an aggregate capacity of sixty stamps, are running night and day, converting our quartz into golden bars. The estimated monthly yield is now about $100,000, soon to be increased to $300,000, when the Bechtel and Bodie commence crushing their ore.

OREON is the only State in the Union that has a separate and distinct exhibit in the agricultural department at the Paris Exposition.

A large portion, if not all, of that region south indigenous to Democracy and illicit whisky distillation, is in a condition, visually, of nullification. A campaign at the front during the existence of war is hardly less hazardous to life and limb than the duties devolving upon our revenue officials in that "concluded" section. They are not upon beaten, scourged, riddled, with bullets or daylight let through them by that old instrument of dominion—the bowie knife. If they dare in self-defense administer a dose of the mixture intended for themselves to their assailants, they are at once arrested and thrown into prison, if, indeed they are so lucky as to escape lynching by a mob. But it is almost an unprecedented occurrence for these assassins to be punished. It seems the purpose of the partisan State and Municipal Courts to shield them; and the drift of public sentiment is such that the whiskey makers may continue their lawless occupations without danger of interference, and if they avail themselves of an opportunity to kill a revenue official they are at once invested with some order of nobility by the community where they live and are courted and referred to as the heroes of the hour. The cases of the officers in South Carolina are in point. They killed one of a crowd trying to receive a prisoner in their hands. They were at once thrust into jail to await their trial for murder. Of course it cannot be known to the public what efforts the new Administration is making to protect its officials in the performance of their duties and to bring this class of offenders to justice. But the bullying bluster and threats of one "Judge" Kershaw really appear to have had the effect to frighten the Government from its purpose to have the cases transferred to the U. S. Courts; and that portion of the public that has little patience with temporizing and vacillating policies, take little stock in the assurance telegraphed away from here that the Government "felt tempted" to send down military force adequate to an enforcement of the law.

DIPHTHERIA, commonly regarded as a modern disease, is now declared by some physicians to have been known in ancient Egypt. It is said to have prevailed there and through Asia Minor for five centuries, and to have appeared in southern Europe some 1,500 years ago. It was known by its present name even then. It raged in southern Italy in the early part of the fourth centuries, and long after in Holland and France.

ENGLISH political prisoners were sold into slavery on three occasions—by Cromwell, after the battle of Worcester; by Charles II., after that of Bothwell Bridge; and by James II., after Seigemoor, when Jeffreys sentenced 841 to be transported to the West Indies and sold. He estimated that they would fetch from $50 to $75 apiece, a sum equivalent to above thrice as much as now.

There are now more than 200,000 Mennonites in the United States, distributed, perhaps a dozen States. They are a people of thrift and energy, and, by their conduct command themselves to those among whom they live. Their religious beliefs approach more nearly to the Quakers than any others. They refuse the Old Testament and deny that there is any original sin.

The Duke of Montpensier was opposed to the embalming of his daughter, the late Queen of Spain, and she was not embalmed. The King of Spain himself closed his wife's eyes, and then took her wedding-ring, and for a time would see none but an old servant.

It is reported that $80,000 worth of machinery had to be destroyed on the City of Tokio, in order to repair the remainder and enable the vessel to reach port on her recent trip. The company has, therefore, struck a general average on the cargo.

A LETTER received by General Sherman from General Ord states that General Mackenzie has not crossed into Mexico as has been reported. The river is so high that neither party can cross. Everything quiet on the border.

OREON is the only State in the Union that has a separate and distinct exhibit in the agricultural department at the Paris Exposition.

WHY is a tramp like a woodpecker? Because each bores for grub.
